RUST INTERN SHIPS OR LEAVE HARBOR

Is Instructions Sent Regarding Russians At Manila.

RUSSIAN FLEET AT HONG KONG

Overhauling Merchantment Near that Port—News from Manchuria is to the Effect that he Armies Are Having Small Skirmishes.

Washington, June 6.—Secretary Taft this morning will cable General Wright at Manila to inform Admiral Enquist that in strict pursuance of the international policy adopted by this government he will be allowed o intern his ships the Aurora, Oleg and Pamtchug at Manila. In case he does not adopt this course, his only alternative, after the period allowed by international law has passed will be to put to sea. It is fully expected here that Admiral Enquist will decide to intern his ships and orders have been issued for Admiral Train to take charge of the details of internment if the Russian government decides to follow this policy.

Russians Overhauling Merchantmen.

Hong Kong, June 6.—Vessels of the Russian volunteer fleet are overhauling merchantmen in the waters north east of this port. According to a report made by the British steamer Ping Suy which arrived here today. The commander of the Ping Suy says he saw four steamers overhauled fifty miles from here by two volunteer steamers.

British Crew Reaches Port.

Shanghai, June 6.—Twenty-nine of the crew of the British steamer Bohemia were landed at Swatow today from a British steamer.

The Oldhamia was captured on May 29 by a Russian cruiser. She was bound for Yokkaichi with a cargo of kerosene. On May 27 she was retaken by a Japanese warship during the battle of the sea of Japan and was subsequently taken to Sasebo, where she arrived on May 30. The captain, engineer and two or three officers were on board of her when she was recaptured.

Japanese Admiral Near Gutzlaoff.

Shanghai, June 6.—Vice Admiral Uriu has arrived off Gutzlaoff island. He is probably coming to Woo Sung. An ex-Russian cruiser is outside this harbor. Gutzlaoff island is situated in Hang Chow bay, a few miles south of Shanghai.

More Troops for Oyama.

Tacoma, Wash., June 6.—Purser P. C. Marrington, of the steamer Elyria, just arrived, says that while at Moji, May 16, 18 transports were seen sailing for Korea. It is understood the men were to march overland and join the Japanese in Manchuria. The current rumor which has been well authenticated, is that the Japanese would soon begin a forward movement, having in contemplation the capture of Vladivostok.

News From Manchuria.

Tokio, June 5.—1:30 p. m.—The following announcement was made today from the headquarters of the Japanese armies in Manchuria:

Early in the morning of June 3, the enemy's infantry and cavalry to the number of some 300 men attacked Erhshih, 7 miles northeast of Changau, were easily repulsed.

The same day at 9:30 in the morning 20 squadrons of he enemy's cavalry advanced south of Taiping on the Kwangpingchiatun road, 5 miles northwest of Fenghwa. One of the same force attacked 7 miles northeast of Kwangpingchiatun, suffered heavy loss by our troops stationed in the vicinity. The enemy fled northwest.

On the heights were four men slightly wounded. The enemy's loss exceeded burglar's drill in his hand, his pockets filled with skeleton keys, explosives and fuse, a stranger dropped dead of heart disease in he little town of Blakesburg in front of a safe. There was not a trace of violence upon his body and that death came while he was intent upon the robbery is evident from the position in which he had fallen. Before entering upon his work he destroyed every trace of identity. There was not a letter or card upon his person. His only possessions were the tools of his trade.

BELIEVES IN DIVORVE LAW.

Eminent Divine Declares that in Many Instance Divorce is Welcome.

New York, June 6.—In a sermon at the Church of Messiah, Rev. Minot J. Savage has expressed the belief that on the whole a large number of divorces at the present time are altogether to be welcome. There are to be, he said, nearly always in the interest of oppressed women, giving them another opportunity for a free, sweet, wholesome life. There are cases where the divorce laws are abused, but not nearly so many as the ministers of a great many of our charches seem to imagine.

"Law does not make marriages. The church does not make marriages. The men and women, if they are ever married, marry themselves. All the law can do is to make a clumsy attempt to protect; all the church can do is to recognize and conserve a fact which already exists. But if there is no marriage, then it is desecration to keep up the sham."

CLAIM INTRIGUE IN CHINA.

Want Railroad Concession withdrawn from Americans and Belgians.

New York, June 6.—A Herald dispatch from Berlin asserts on what is claimed as the highest authority that an intrigue is being actively worked in China, backed by powerful influence, the object of which is to withdraw forcibly or otherwise, the concession to the American Chinese Development company, in which New York and Belgian financiers are heavily interested for building all the important railroads between Han Kow and Canton.

The withdrawal of the concession is intended, the correspondent declares, to be the first strong step toward closing the "open door." Reports of a similar nature were in circulation last January when it was said the Chinese government threatened to annul the franchise because the American syndicate had sold a controlling interest to Europeans.

Paul Jones' Commission Found.

Washington, June 6—Secretary Morton received information that the original commission of John Paul Jones as a captain in the navy had been located in Philadelphia, and he will try to obtain it for the navy department. The commission, a copy of which was forwarded here, reads: "John Paul Jones is appointed to be captain in the navy. By order of congress, John Hancock, president. Philadelphia, Oct. 10, 1779. Attest, Charles Thomson." According to the secretary's informant, the commission has every appearance of being genuine.

Steed May Head of Mercer.

Macon, Ga., June 6.—The general impression here today is that Mr. Clem P. Steed the well known lawyer and member of the faculty in the law school of Mercer, will be the next president of Mercer university.

It is said on what seems to be very good authority that if Mr. Steed will accept the position he can get it. His father was for many years in charge of the department of theology in the college, and was one of the best known educators in the country. The matter will be decided definitely within a very short time.

26 Children Born to Couple.

Owingsville, Ky., June 6—Marion K. Vanderpool and wife, who live in the mountains of whitley county, certainly have strong claim to any medal ever offered by President Roosevelt for examples of enemies of race suicide. Vanderpool and his wife are the parents of 26 children, 21 of whom are now living, five having died in infancy.

ARBITRATION NOW ORDER OF THE DAY

On Outcome of Negotiations Depend Settlement of Strike.

NON-UNION DRIVER "SLUGGED."

If Arbitration Negotiations Bears No Fruit for Peace There Will Be 10,000 More Teamsters Called Out and More Men Forced Into Idleness.

Chicago, June 6.—Developments of the utmost significance in the teamsters' strike hinge on the outcome of arbitration negotiations between the owners and the teamsters within the next few days. Both sides are in an aggressive mood, and failure to reach an agreement, it is predicted, will force a walk out of 10,000 more teamsters and bring idleness to thousands of workmen in other craft. If the members of the Chicago Team Owners association force the issue with their drivers similar action on the part of oher teaming organizations, it is said, is practically certain.

If the teamsters agree to arbitrate the question of the right of the team owners to make deliveries to strike-bound houses the decision, it is conceded will be in favor of the team owners, whose contract with the drivers provides that at all times they shall further the interests of their employers. Wih the team owners' making deliveries to all the concerns involved in the struggle, the strike, it is asserted would lose its force at once.

The truck drivers' union with which the team owners have a contract, will meet tomorrow night and vote on the arbitration question. The commission team owners' association which has taken action similar to that of the team owners' association, has confined the arbitration to the fight of its members to take produce from the express cars and deliver it to he various markets, the commission wagon drivers' union will vote on the arbitration question tomorrow night.

Nonunion men are still harassed by sluggers.

Albert Johnosn, believed to be a non union teamster, was severely beaten today at Fourteenth and Ashland avenue. When found by the police he was insensible and bleedig from a wound in the head. He was taken to a hospital where it was found that several of his ribs were broken. He will probably die.

Charles Dold, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor has resigned from the teamsters' strike committee. He asserts that his action was due to the fact that for several weeks he has neglected the affairs of the Piano and Organ Union of which he is an official.

Mayor Dunne has replied to criticisms of himself contained in a report of the grand jury. In a formal statement the mayor asserts that the report is grossly unfair and unjust.

Denial is made to the charge that the mayor failed to exert full authority. He says:

"If the grand jury means that I have failed to call in the militia I answer that until I fail to get wagons through the streets and maintain law and order in the streets, I have no legal or moral right to call for the assistance of the militia. I do not intend, until it becomes necessary, to deal Chicago and its business interests that hurtful blow. The animus behind the whole affair is apparent. Several weeks ago the interests in this city demanded that I call in the militia. A situation under the law warranting such a call did not then and has not since existed. I refuse to do so, and I will refuse until it appears that such a step is necessary."

Immediately after his refusal to call for the militia the mayor asserted he was attacked in the "most virulent manner."

Continuing, he says:

"During the whole of the strike I have decided and acted on allquestions arising during the controversy as if I were still sitting on the bench giving to each side what was its legal right, no more and no less, and my action in this regard I submit to the candid and impartial consideration of my fellow citizens having at heart the interests of the whole people, without being swerved from my course by the clamor from either side."

KING RECEIVES AMBASSADOR.

Whitelaw Reid is Presented to Ruler of Great Britain.

London, June 6.—Whitelaw Reid, the new American ambassador, had an audience with King Edward at Buckingham palace at noon today and presented his credentials.

Three royal carriages were sent to Dorchester house to convey the ambassador and the members of the embassy to the palace. The first was occupied by Mr. Reid and Colonel Douglass Dawson, the king's master of ceremonies. Secretary Carter, Captain Stockton, the naval attache; Major Beacom, the military attache; second Secretary Craig Wadsworth and third Secretary Einstein occupied their carriages. At the palace Mr. Reid was received by the great officers of state. Foreign Secretary Lansdowne drove up to the palace about the same time as the ambassador, whom he introduced to the king. The latter wore a field marshal's uniform and was surrounded by his suite. Majesty's reception of the ambassador was most cordial.

While the ambassador was presenting the king with his credentials Queen Alexandria was receiving Mrs. Reid and Miss Reid. Her majesty showed them the interesting objects in the palace.

Secretary Hay paid a formal visit to the American embassy this morning.

SUNDAY PICNIC ENDS FATALLY.

Two Men Killed and Several More Seriously Wounded.

Lexington, Ky., June 6.—A special telegram from Lee City, Wolfe county, brings news that in a fight at a Sunday picinic near that town two men were killed, two mortally wounded and three less seriously shot.

The fight took place near a "blind tiger" saloon, conducted by a negro named Grant Reed. There had been bad blood between Andrew Wilson and Harlan Dicks, a merchant, for some time. They met at the picnic and a clash between the principals was followed by a general battle. Freeman and Gibbard were almost instantly killed. Neither Wilson nor Dicks can live.

Henry Freeman gained notoriety recently when he swore out warrants charging James Hargis, county judge, and Ed Callahan, sheriff of Breathitt county, ex-Senator Alex Hragis and Elbert Hargis, of Jackson, with the murder of James Cockrill.

Full details of the battle had not been received when the telegraph office at Lee City closed.

NEGRO SWUNG TO TREE BY MOB

Victim Attempted to Enter Room of Widow.

Louisville, Miss., June 6.—Hasie Bostic, a negro, has been hanged in the woods near this town by a band of 40 masked and armed men. The negro, in the custody of a number of officers, was being taken to Jackson, whe the lynchers appeared and demanded the prisoner. Bostic was turned over to the band and was promptly hanged to the limb of a tree, death resulting speedily from strangulation.

Bostic was charged with having attempted to enter the room of Mrs. Sarah Gordon, a widow, early Saturday morning. The negro made two attempts to gain admission to the house, but was finally driven off.

He was arrested shortly afterwards and was being taken to Jackson for safe-keeping when the lynchin occurred.

Revolution is Quelled.

New York, June 6.—The revolution in Salvador del Estro has been quelled cables the Buenos Ayres, Argentine, correspondent of The Herald. Governor Santillan, who was a prisoner, has been liberated by the provincial forces. Governor Santillan wired to President Quintana telling the details of his capture and liberation. He says that when the government forces approached the revolutionists they put him and his wife in front of their line. The federal government will be interpolated in the chamber because of the alleged complicity of the federal officials.

ALFONSO WELCOMED BY ENGLAND'S KING

Royal Visitor Is Accorded A Hearty Reception.

BIG WARSHIPS FIRE SALUTE

Spain's King Will Spend Several Day's Visiting the Isles of Great Britain. He Inspected Guard of Honor in a Drenching Rain.

London, June 5.—4:33 p. m.—The King of Spain arrived in London this afternoon. He was welcomed at the railroad station by King Edward.

Their majesties arrived at Buckingham palace at 4:58 p. m.

The Royal visitor was accorded the heartiest reception the whole length of the route. No untoward incident marked the event.

Portsmouth, Eng., June 6.—The king of Spain arrived here this afternoon from Cherbourg on board the British Royal yacht Victor and Albert. The yacht was accompanied across the channel by a strong escort of British cruisers and torpedo boa desroyers.

The royal visitor was welcomed at the British naval headquarters by an imposing array of warships, a score of which fired a royal salute as the Victoria and Albert passed through their lines.

The young king, who wore the uniform of a British general, with ribbon of the Order of the Garter, stood on deck evidently keenly enjoying the spectacle, despite the fact that it was pouring rain.

The Prince of Wales, representing King Edward, awaited the yacht at the quayside and immediately after the gang-plank was run up he went aboard the Victoria and Albert and warmly welcomed the Spanish ruler.

Their respective suites were then introduced, and subsequently the mayor and corporation of the Portsmouth presented Knig Alfonso with an address of welcome.

King Alfonso who was the first King of Spain who has ever landed in England disembarked at 2:30 p. m. Accompanied by the Prince of Wales his majesty inspected the guard of honor in a drenching rain and subsequently took a train for London amidst the firing of another royal salute.

The most extraordinary police precautions were taken within the precincts of the dock yard. Not one of the general public was allowed in and beyond the officials and a few newspaper correspondents, none of whom was permitted to go near the king. There were no spectators of the king's debarkation.

Miscreant Steals Pulpit.

Olivet, Mich., June 6.—Somebody on the college hill with an evident very religious temperament has stolen the chapel pulpit, and the big Bible now rests on a common stand. This is not a new stunt by any means, as one or two pulpits have disappeared in past years, never to show up again, and the one which has now been stolen was away from its accustomed resting place throughout all of last summer. The faculty is investigating.

MONTHLY MEETING CITY COUNCIL

Council Wants Improvements at the Waterworks.

MAKE VALUABLE SUGGESTIONS

Which Are Adopted—Alderman Hodges is Modern in His Ideas, and Wants City to Own and Operate Light Plant and Construct Sewerage.

The City Council met in regular monthly meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the council rooms. Present, Aldermen Broome, Benson, Taylor, Hodges, Cushman and O'Neill.

As Alderman Broome was acting mayor he was disqualified and Alderman Cushman presided.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

Alderman Broome made a report of the finance committee and was thanked for his services in checking up the vouchers of the city for the past six years, amounting to about six thousand in all. City Clerk Dell was ill and asked to be excused from further attendance on the meeting, which was done and Alderman Hodges was requested to act as clerk for the remainder of the session.

The committee on water supply appointed to investigate and report on the cost of certain improvements of the water plant, made their report, recommending that the old reservoirs be cleaned out and re-cemented, that a new reservoir be constructed large enough to take in four additional springs, and that a new fireproof power house be built. The total cost of these improvements, the committee estimated, would be between $4,500 and $5,000. The council ordered water Superintendent Miller to proceed at once to clean out and cement the sides and bottom of the old reservoirs.

A petition was presented from citizens of Southeast Gainesville requesting that Middle street be opened through to University street. The council thought it was a reasonable request and such a street badly needed, and ordered the street committee and city attorney to proceed to open said street.

Alderman Benson asked for an appropriation of $100 for the purpose of sinking some test wells at the waterworks. The council instructed Alderman Benson and Superintendent Miller to secure the opinion of an expert well digger in reference to the advisability of sinking these test wells.

Alderman Hodges offered a resolution which was adopted, instructing the committee on lights to investigate thoroughly and report on the advisability of the city owning and operating its own lighting plant and the cost of constructing and operating such a lighting plant as would supply the needs of the city, and also to report on the cost of the plant having the lighting franchise at present, and what a duplicate of this plant could be erected for at this time.

Alderman Hodges also offered a resolution for the appointment of a special committee to investigate the cost of a sewerage system for the city and the kind of sewerage system that would be best suited to conditions here and to report in writing to the council as soon as practicable. Chairman Benson named on this committee Aldermen Taylor, Hodges and O'Neill.

Marshal Pinkoson was ordered to make a thorough sanitary inspection of the city and the garbage was placed at his disposal.

The committee on water supply submitted a set of rules for the government of the water department, which were read for information and laid over to a future meeting.

Council adjourned to meet in special session Thursday evening, June 8th.

TWO COUNTIES GOOD.

Frank Teague Declares Marion and Lake Counties Are All Right.

Among the prominent Floridians in this city is Frank A. Teague of Ocala, who is registered at the Brown House.

Mr. Teague is a good friend of Gainesville, and is very enthusiastic over the University matter. In speaking of the matter Tuesday he stated that the people of both Marion and Lake counties as a rule were in favor of Gainesville for the State University, and he believed if the question was put to a popular vote throughout the State that Gainesville would be an easy winner.

"There are many reasons why Gainesville should be the University town," continued Mr. Teague. "The first is the moral and religious advantages. Gainesville, without doubt, is one of the most moral cities in the State, caused largely from the fact that the city has no saloons. It is an ideal city for a school, since the atmosphere is full of purity from a moral and religious standpoint. The water is pure, and in fact everything points to an advantage for Gainesville, and the University should be located here."

Mr. Teague stated in conclusion that he felt sure the people of his home town and county would lend all support possible to Gainesville for the University.

Preservation of Meat.

Meat is commonly preserved by steeping it in brine. This method, however, has the undesirable effect of extracting from the meat much soluble nutritious matter besides rendering the meat harder and less digestible. Another way of preserving it is in air-tight cases. The cases are packed with meat and filled up with gravy and are then hermetically sealed except at one point. They are then exposed to heat above that of boiling water for several hours, thus destroying all the existing germs and driving out all the air contained in them. The open part is then soldered over. If by any accident the tin is not hermetically sealed the meat will spoil.—American Queen.

Kneeling Horses.

In ancient times, before the invention of stirrups and luxurious saddles, horses were taught to kneel to permit their riders to mount. A beautiful Greek vase in one of the museums in St. Petersburg shows a war horse of many centuries ago kneeling low before an amazon. The riders in those days mounted from the "off" side in contradiction to the modern usage. Plutarch tells how in the first century of this era certain effeminate Roman riders found even the horse block of too little assistance and had their horses trained to kneel to them.

Thinking and Doing.

I have been a great deal happier since I have given up thinking about what is easy and pleasant and being discontented because I could not have my own way. Our life is determined for us, and it makes the mind very free when we give up wishing and only think of bearing what is laid upon us and doing what is given us to do.—George Eliot.

A Witty Diagnosis.

The object of the duel is said to be the healing of wounded honor. To try to cure a wound of the spirit, or, rather, the temper, by a scratch on the skin savors of homeopathy, but may perhaps be justified by the surgical principle of relieving tension by incision.—British Medical Journal.

Homemaking.

Men do not make their homes unhappy because they have genius, but because they have not enough genius. A mind and sentiments of a higher order would render them capable of seeing and feeling all the beauty of domestic ties.—Wordsworth.

Unimportant Man.

Many a man goes away from home for a week and imagines that he is missed by the whole community, and when he comes home he finds that there isn't a person in town that knew he had been away.

So work the honeybees, creatures that by a rule in nature teach the act of order to a peopled kingdom.—Shakespeare.

A DANISH BOARHOUND.

He Was a Jealous Brute and Carefully Guarded His Mistress.

During a visit to a friend in the country Sir Henry Hawkins had an adventure with a boarhound which he describes in his "Reminiscences:"

There was an enormous Danish boarhound which had, unperceived by us, followed Mrs. Harlstone from the library. He pushed by without ceremony and proceeded until he reached the lady, who was some distance in advance. He then carefully took the skirt of her dress with his mouth and carried it like an accomplished train bearer until she reached the bottom of the stairs and the garden, when he let go the dress and gazed as an interested spectator.

But before we parted from Mrs. Harlstone and while I was talking to her I felt my hand in the boarhound's mouth, and a pretty capacious mouth it was, for I seemed to touch nothing but his formidable fangs. So soft was the touch of his fangs that I was only just conscious my hand was in his mouth by now and then the gentlest reminder. I knew animals too well to attempt to withdraw it, and I preserved a calm more wonderful than I could have given myself credit for.

While I was wondering what the next proceeding might be Mrs. Harlstone begged me to be quite easy and on no account to show any opposition to the dog's proceedings, in which case she promised that he would lead me gently to the other side of the lawn and leave me without doing the least harm.

As I was being led away Mrs. Harlstone said: "Do exactly as he wishes. He is jealous of your talking to me, and any one who does so he leads away to the other side of the garden."

Having conducted me to the remotest spot he could find, he opened his huge jaws and released my hand, wagged his tail and trotted off, much pleased with his performance.

YOUR DAILY TASK.

Bring Your Whole Self to It With All Your Powers Intact.

It makes all the difference in the world in results whether you come to your work every day with all your powers intact, with all your faculties up to the standard; whether you come with the entire man, so that you can fling your whole life into your task, or with only a part of yourself; whether you do your work as a giant or as a pygmy. Most people bring only a small part of themselves to their tasks. They cripple much of their ability by irregular living, bad habits in eating and injurious food, lack of sleep, dissipation or some other folly. They do not come to their tasks every morning whole men. A part of themselves and often a large part is somewhere else. They left their energy where they were trying to have a good time, so that they bring weakness instead of power, indifference and dullness instead of enthusiasm and alertness, to the performance of the most important duties of their lives. The man who comes to his work in the morning unrefreshed, languid and listless cannot do a good, honest day's work, and if he drags rotten days into the year how can he expect a sound career or a successful achievement?

Good work is not entirely a question of will power. Often this is impaired by a low physical standard. The quality of the work cannot be up to high water mark when every faculty, every function and every bit of your ability is affected by your physical and mental condition. You may be sure that your weakness, whatever its cause, will appear in your day's work, whether it is making books or selling them, teaching school or studying, singing or painting, chiseling statues or digging trenches.—Orison Swett Marden in Success Magazine.

No Secret About It.

It is no secret that for cuts, burns, ulcers, fever sores, sore eyes, boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory of Hope, Tex. 25c at all drug stores.

His Course.

Farmer Cornrack—Mandy, I got a letter from our boy sayin' he was gettin' ready to take a preparatory session. Mandy—A three months' course, I presume? Farmer Cornrack—No, I think not. He said somethin' about a nine hole course, twice around.—New York Times.

BASEBALL GAME.

Gainesville Done up the Starke Team Again.

The second game of baseball between the Starke colored team and the Central City colored team, at the ball park yesterday afternoon, started out in true championship style, the first three batters of the visitors going out in one, two, three order. After the first man of the Gainesville team had fanned out the fireworks began and they pounded out two runs.

In the second inning Starke drew a blank and the Three Cs run in nine tallies. After the two teams drew blanks in the third, Starke got the rabbit and made six in the fourth, and Gainesville four. Gainesville got one in the fifth and Starke two in the sixth, and the strawberry pickers got five in the seventh and gave the locals a goose egg. There was nothing doing in the eighth, and Gainesville's dusky sons ended the misery by making two in the ninth.

The score by innings is as follows:

Gainesville.....2 9 0 4 1 0 0 0 2—18
Starke.....0 0 0 6 0 2 5 0 0—13

Batteries Gainesville—Martin and Carolina. Starke—Purnell, Ellerson and Cox.

Umpire—Sherrod.

Ball Notes.

The hits and errors were not recorded. The figures didn't agree.

When a balk was called on the visiting pitcher the first baseman got stark mad and refused to play. The matter was settled.

In the midst of the excitement some one said that Willie flew and "Skeeter" too—one of the fair ones.

There will be a game between Waldo and Gainesville (white) this afternoon. If you want to see a good game, don't miss it.

Possible Way of Having Effective Cure.

If a woman or a man with luxuriant hair, you may be sure neither is likely to amount to anything. In this day when women and men with brittle hair, they owe it to themselves are hundreds of preparations claimed to cure dandruff, but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that the result of a germ in the scalp, and that persistent dandruff and its consequent baldness, can only be cured by killing the germ; and there is no preparation that will destroy that germ but Herpicide. "Destroy the germ and remove the effect." Booklet free. Send 10c. in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Pensioning Judges in England.

It is considered an essential condition of the English court system that the judges shall be absolutely independent financially; that their salaries shall be so large and provision for their future shall upon their retirement be so ample they need at no time of their service have any monetary anxiety. There are now no fewer than eight ex-judges in receipt of total pensions amounting to $121,662.50 a year. A judge who continues on the bench after completing fifteen years' service really does his work for $7,290.75 a year, the difference between his salary and pension. The lord chancellor is entitled to a pension of $24,832.50 a year for life, however short his tenure of the chancellorship.

The Russian navy's cry: "Any port in a storm."

The Cosmopolitan magazine has been purchased by William R. Hearst.

The King of Spain is enjoying his visit in England and has not had any bombs thrown at him while there.

The London papers say that Mr. Carnegie is living like a duke. He never did so before, as he always paid his bills.

The United States Supreme Court is enjoying a brief vacation of four months. The benches will be thoroughly rested by that time.

The counties of Florida that are expending money for good roads will surely profit by them. Every dollar will return two-fold, at least.

By the time Oyama has finished up Linevitch's army he has in the field, a part of the Russian navy may be ready for another round. The Czar must be humored.

If Russia wants to come out of the struggle with any semblance of a navy she had better run the remaining ships of her navy into some neutral port and have them interned.

New Jersey has a man who has resigned his public office because there is nothing to do but draw his salary. If this be true, New Jersey has a man deserving of something better than a hero's medal.

Every new postmaster-general has a new lot of ideas to advance, and the average postmaster pays no heed to them. Mr. Cortelyou says he thinks a postmaster should be selected for his business qualifications and not because he is a little stick politician.

Ambassador Reid has been received in England in a manner highly satisfactory to our royal "blud." If there is anything our representatives to European countries do love to maintain, it is their royal dignity. Mr. Reid will not appear in knickerbockers, perhaps, until he has taken on a little more flesh.

We don't know whether it was because the Jays got such a jar in the game with Augusta or not. But the baseball reporter of The Times-Union called Cicotte an Italian, when the fact is he is a descendant of the high-born French families of Monroe, Mich., where the musk-rat abounds and furbishes the cheer for the annual banquet at that place.

The war against the cigarette finally has resulted in making what is called the "cigarro." The contents are precisely the same as those which enter into the construction of the cigarette, but they are put in a leaf of mild tobacco instead of rice paper. It is aimed to avoid the law relating to the sale of cigarettes and cigarette material. The new coffin nail is just as bad as the old one, since the smoke is intended to be inhaled, thus poisoning the lungs, interfering with the action of the heart, ruining the digestion and reducing the poor little devil who uses it to a condition of semi-idocy.

THE UNIVERSAL SENTIMENT.

The Live Oak Democrat, in speaking of the recent inspection of State institutions, has the following:

"So many reports of a discouraging character about the condition and management of State institutions have been made by legislative committees during this session that it is refreshing to read what one of these committees says as the result of its recent official inspection of the East Florida Seminary at Gainesville, where 227 students are being educated in the higher branches. The committee reported the Seminary urgently in need of enlarged facilities and every department uncomfortably crowded for the want of room, but of the management of the institution and the work it was doing with the facilities at its command the committee had only words of emphatic commendation."

The same sentiment is expressed on every hand. The sentiment that is found at the Seminary is apparent on every hand in Gainesville. The city government, the people in general, and the whole atmosphere of the city is as clean and pure as in any city in the United States. People who have been in many cities of the Union come here and express this opinion, and it is the sentiment on which Gainesville prides herself.

FOREIGN COTTON TRADE.

The active hand the government has been taking in the development of foreign trade by creating departments at Washington to furnish information and increase, as far as possible, the demand abroad for our manufactures, is to be highly commended for its success. Now Congress proposes to go a step further and aid the cotton manufacturer directly by creating a cotton commission, whose duty it will to remove barriers to the sale of cotton goods to foreign countries, investigate and report possibilities, and promote this trade every way possible.

The wisdom of this move appeals to all the cotton trade, for it has long been recognized that our foreign business was being neglected, while other countries, more aggressive, have stepped in and got it. It is proposed now to stimulate our foreign cotton goods trade systematically through a regularly organized commission, with competent heads trained in such work. That good results will follow such a campaign goes without saying, for it must be admitted that heretofore our goods trade has been moving along in a lucky-go-easy way, with no special effort being made in behalf of the manufacturer.

MEALS FOR 26,000.

At the reunion of the Confederate Veterans to be held in Louisville, Ky., next week, Joseph Pettus, chairman of the committee in charge of hotels and accommodations, reported that meals can be served to 26,000 persons, and so far lodging for 8,700 have been secured. Mr. Pettus has arranged to secure 1,500 cots for use during the reunion, and 700 of these will be placed in the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse, Ninth and Main streets. This building will be known as "Barracks No. 1," and I. P. Barnard, president of the Louisville Warehouse Company, has arranged to turn the warehouse into a hotel for the three days.

At a meeting of the Kentucky Colonels, the marching club, which will meet and escort Gen. Stephen D. Lee, during his visit to Louisville, it was announced that Gen. Lee will arrive in Louisville on Monday night of the reunion week. He will be met by the club and a band and will be escorted to his headquarters at the Galt House. On the opening day of the reunion the club will again escort him to Confederate headquarters, where he will take command.

THE COPPER TRADE.

The copper trade has been considerably cheered by the announcement that the Japanese government has decided to issue in the near future a copper coinage for the province of Corea, which will require as large a tonnage as that which is still being made by the Chinese government. The news, which has just reached New York from Tokio, justifies the most sanguine predictions regarding the continuance of Chinese buying in the American copper markets, regardless of the ending of the Japanese-Russian war. As the bulk of the output of the Japanese mines will now be needed to supply this proposed Corean coinage, the Chinese government will be unable to satisfy its needs in the Japanese market, hence their requirements will have to be covered in the United States.

The European demands will aid the markets in the United States and be a boom for copper stocks.

To Exterminate Codlin Moth.

Santa Cruz, Cal., June 6.—A. A. Fitch, a well known real estate man and former horticulturist of this city, is positive that he has a remedy for exterminating the codlin moth in the apple orchards of this state. It is simply a process of giving the orchards a treatment of sulphur smoke.

WORMS

"I had for years suffered from what medical men called Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach. In August I purchased a box of Cascarets and was surprised to find that I "had 'em"—yes—a wiggling, squirming mass left me. Judge our doctor's surprise when I showed him thirty feet, and in another day the remainder (about the same length) of a tapeworm that had been sapping my vitality for years. I have enjoyed the best of health ever since. I trust this testimonial will appeal to other sufferers."

MELON MOVEMENT WILL BE HEAVY

Season Will be Short but Yield Will be Plentiful.

GOOD PRICES ARE REALIZED

Cave & Co. Shipped First Carload from State, Which Was Closely Followed by Shipment from Martin. Cantaloupes and Watermelons.

The melon movement over the Gainesville and Gulf is assuming large proportions and the season promises to be heavy. It is yet in its infancy for the season, but there is a large acreage and indications are that the yield of both cantaloupes and watermelons will be heavier this season than for several years. While the season will be short, the fruit will be choice, judging from what has already been shipped, and the prices will be good.

The Gainesville and Gulf Railway moved the first carload of cantaloupes of the season from the State a few days ago. This car contained four hundred crates and was shipped by Cave & Co., the extensive planters at Fort Drane. It was followed a few hours later by a car from Easterling Bros., Martin, but since that time Cave & Co. have shipped several solid cars, all of which have brought good prices.

Monday night the Gainesville and Gulf delivered to the Seaboard Air Line in this city two solid cars of cantaloupes and one solid car of watermelons. These cars were consigned to the Eastern markets and were very choice. They were grown and shipped by Cave & Co., who are said to have the finest cantaloupe and melon crop in this section of the State.

While the cantaloupe season promises to be short, the fruit is exceptionally fine and will bring good prices. The same may be said of watermelons. The heaviest movement of cantaloupes is expected during next week, and this movement will be succeeded by watermelons, of which there is a large crop.

Impromptu Surgery.

In one of the most fashionable restaurants in Paris a man's life was saved through the skill and quickness of one of the guests. It appears that a man, with three friends, was dining at one of the small tables when a piece of meat lodged in his throat and he found it impossible to get rid of it. His friends in alarm slapped him on the back, but the unfortunate man became black in the face and fell to the floor. A surgeon from the German hospital, who happened to be dining in the cafe, pushed his way through the crowd. He saw at once that the man was dying and that if prompt measures were not taken he would quickly succumb. He ordered one of the waiters to bring him a small funnel such as is used in bottling wine and then, without a moment's hesitation, took out a sharp knife, cut the man's throat, removed the piece of meat and—the waiter having returned—quickly inserted the funnel in the opening. The man was then hastily conveyed to the hospital, where a silver tube was inserted in the place of the funnel, and a few hours later he was pronounced out of danger.

The Wisdom of Scroggins.

The wisdom of Scroggins, millionaire ex-stage driver, from John Uri Lloyd's novel, "Scroggins:"

"Et don't make no difference, Mr. Mayor, how rich and ign'rant a man is ef he only hes sense 'nough ter keep on workin' after gittin' rich. But ef he tries ter quit work an' enj'y himself by lookin' at things with his eyes an' thinkin' with his no 'count brain an' stuffin' his one stomach like et war a hogshead he air a fool. I've got my wind agin, and I'm goin' back ter the gulch."

"But, my good man, you are old. Your place is filled by some other man. Perhaps you cannot get it back."

"Pardner," said Scroggins, "there ain't no question 'bout my gittin' that place. Mr. Mayor, I owns the line. When I picks up them ribbons thar won't be no agent to say, 'Put 'em down, Scroggins.'"

That Tired Feeling.

If you are languid, depressed, incapable for work, it indicates that your liver is out of order. Herbine will assist nature to throw off headaches, rheumatism and ailments akin to nervousness and restore the energies and vitality of sound and perfect health. J. J. Hubbard, Temple, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for the past two years. It has done me more good than all the doctors. It is the best medicine ever made for chills and fever." 50c. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

His Mistaken Idea.

"But, my dear," remonstrated Mr. Meekun, "there's a good deal to be said on both sides."

"No, there isn't," answered his spouse. "I've told you what I think about it, and that's all that is going to be said."—Chicago Tribune.

The Reason.

Ethel—What did you say to papa last night? Ferdy—Nothing. I was so scared that I didn't open my mouth. Ethel—Oh, that accounts for it! He said you impressed him very favorably!—Home Notes.

Georgia Legislature to Meet.

Atlanta, June 6.—Much interest is manifested in the approaching session of the legislature, which convenes on Wednesday, June 28, just three weeks from Wednesday of this week. The nearness of the session is begining to enliven things somewhat around the capitol. Most of the officials have already prepared their annual reports and submitted them to the governor. These reports have been printed and will be ready for distribution among the members upon their arrival. Governor Terrell has already begun the preparation of his annual message, which document, it is said, will be brief this year, though it is expected a number of important recommendations will be made.

Negro Woman Kills White Man.

Rocky Ford, Ga., June 6.—Joseph Dougherty, a prominent young farmer, was shot through the heart, while in his buggy, and killed instantly. A negro woman, Caroline Riddy, fired the shot. She escaped. This morning, Paul Jones, a negro, was arrested as accessory to the murder. While Jones was being taken to the jail at Statesboro, he made an attempt to brain the sheriff with a brick. The sheriff was partially stunned, but succeeded in drawing his pistol and firing. The bullet went through Jones' temple, and he was killed instantly.

Fatal "Side-Swipe."

Youngstown, O., June 6.—By the side-swiping of an engine of a Lake Shore freight train by a switching engine early this morning Fireman I. A. Hayward, of Ashtabula, O., was killed and Engineer Herbert Adams, of the freight engine, who also resides in Ashtabula, and Alfred Lewis, of this city, were injured. The offer of the reward reveals a story of months of haunting fear which have made the life unbearable for the members of the family.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease as that of C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach." separately. For every gallon of Kinloch Paint buy one gallon of linseed oil. This makes two gallons of paint, ready for use. You then know that the paint you're putting on your house is alive—"the genuine oil is in it," and paint is not paint unless it contains 50% of really pure oil. WOMAN CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Must Stand Trial for Complicity in the Death of Her Husband.

Kansas City, June 6.—The trial of Mrs. Aggie Myers, charged with complicity in the murder of her husband, Clarence Myers, a pressman, at their home in this city in May, 1904, was called today at Liberty, Mo., having been taken to Clay county on a change of venue. Plank Holtman, who, it is charged, was Mrs. Myers' confederate in the murder, who was tried, convicted and sentenced to be hanged for the crime, was a witness for the state against Mrs. Myers.

Mrs. Myers will be a witness in her own defense. The defense will try to prove that there was no motive for killing her husband. The state will try to prove that Holtman and Mrs. Myers were infatuated with each other an dthat they killed Myers in order that they might marry.

Mrs. Myers still adheres to her original story that her husband was kiled by negro burglars.

The murder was most atrocious, Myers' body being hacked in a horrible manner.

Holtman was arrested at Butte, Mont., where he had fled.

The prisoners were confined in a cell and during the night one of them feigned illness, calling up the jailer, who opened the cell door to hand the sick man some midicine. The prisoners, all negroes, overpowered the jailer and ran through the residential portion of the building and into the street.

Morocco's Action Displeases France.

Paris, June 6.—Strong tension is developing in the cabinet as the result of the defection of the sultan of Morocco from the French Reform proposals. The situation is similar to that when Foreign Minister Delcasse suddenly presented his resignation. It is expected that the sultan's action in proposing to refer the question to an international conference will be submitted to the council of ministers tomorrow. The question of its acceptance or rejection is likely to involve an acute situation.

The first half bottle relieved me and four bottles have cured me of this terrible disease. Before I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure I had to make water about every fifteen minutes, day and night, and passed a brick-dust substance, and sometimes a slimy substance. ON THE OCEAN'S FLOOR.

How It Feels to Go Down Into the Sea In a Diving Bell.

How it feels to go down into the sea in a diving bell is described as follows by one who made the descent: "Putting on a pair of stockings, leggings and heavy boots, I jumped on to the seat when the huge bell—it weighed forty tons and was as large as a good sized room—was swung by the powerful crane over the staging, and gradually we were lowered into the sea. The sensation at first was very strange. As we entered the water, which was driven out of the bell by compressed air, there was a distinct buzzing sound in the ears and head. I was told to hold my nose and blow through it, and I did so. Slowly we descended and at last reached the bottom, some fifty feet below the surface. The bell in question was seventeen feet long and ten feet wide. There were six of us in it. It was lighted by electricity and was almost as bright as day. We first landed on a bed which the divers had previously leveled. The moment the bell touched the ground there was perhaps about two feet of water in it. This was quickly driven out by the compressed air, when we walked on comparatively dry ground with the sea all around us.

"By sending signals up to the man in charge of the great crane to which the bell is attached the apparatus can be moved as its occupants wish. After inspecting the smooth bed on which the bottom blocks are laid we went out to sea and, landing on the bottom again, obtained some idea of the difficulties of digging a foundation on the floor of the ocean. It was ragged and rocky. Four men work in a bell under a pressure of twenty-seven pounds to the square inch for three hours at a time, digging up the ground until it is perfectly smooth and level. The material is thrown into a large wooden box swung in the center of the bell.

"Climbing to our seats again, the man gave the necessary signals, and away we went, all under water, of course, until we landed once more upon the stones just placed in position. The electric lights in the bell are placed close to the thick little glass windows. When we stayed on the bottom quietly for a little while the fish darted at the light, but at the noise of a shovel they quickly disappeared."

Ralph Waldo Emerson's Stove.

Ralph Waldo Emerson was a man of rare integrity and very particular about small things. One day a new cooking stove had been provided for his house, and, although the stove came very highly recommended, it proved thoroughly unsatisfactory and most provoking, as it did everything but what it was expected to do. After awhile the family was in despair, and some one suggested sending it to auction.

"What!" exclaimed Emerson. "Transfer our own perplexity to another pair of shoulders? No, never, unless the stove is labeled 'Imperfect.'"

And so "Imperfect" it was labeled and sold at a great discount.—Boston Herald.

The Oldest Book.

Max Muller said that the Brahmans in particular pride themselves on the age of their Vedas, which, according to some critics, date from 6000 B. C.; according to others, from 1200 or 1500 B. C. Even this more moderate date is far beyond that of the Old Testament or any other sacred book, so that to the Brahmins must be given the credit, if credit there be, of possessing the oldest, the most remote and consequently the most difficult of the sacred books of the world.

A NAP AFTER A MEAL

ONE OF THE BEST ITEMS IN THE LIST OF LIFE PRESERVERS.

The Postprandial Restful Doze Is an Aid to Good Health and More In Accord With Physiological Requirements Than Exercise.

The majority of people take a meal of some kind between the hours of 12 and 2 daily, says a physician. With a number of persons this meal assumes the form of a substantial dinner, while with others it amounts to nothing more than a light luncheon. In either case, however, the repast requires to be digested, and this necessitates some modification of the activities of the brain, since neither that organ nor those concerned in the processes of digestion are capable of good work when an attempt is made to put forth their energies simultaneously.

The exceedingly complex processes of digestion and assimilation whereby dead animal and vegetable matters are transformed into living human tissues demand for their rapid and healthy performance an increased circulation of blood in the stomach and ancillary organs as well as a concentration of nervous energy in the same region. Now, increase of circulation in one organ or set of organs entails a diminution in the others. Consequently the supply of blood to the brain is curtailed immediately after a meal has been eaten, and since the blood is the life the higher functions of that great organ are performed only with difficulty if at all.

A tendency to drowsiness, confusion of thought and inability to make any great mental effort are among the results of a diminished cerebral circulation. These feelings are, therefore, experienced by most persons after a meal, and they are the more pronounced in proportion to the greater amount of digestive energy expended.

Since brain work of good quality cannot be produced while the processes of digestion are in active operation it is wise not to attempt it. It is never prudent to thwart the beneficent intentions of nature. Many persons struggle against the mental and physical lethargy that accompany the earlier stages of the digestive act, apparently under the delusion that all time given to the important business of building up and repairing their tissues is time wasted. So far from this being the case, a well spent postprandial interval tends to the preservation and prolongation of life.

If a tendency to drowsiness is felt sleep should be allowed to prevail, for the proverbial "forty winks" is justified by science. A ten or fifteen minutes' nap after a meal, curiously enough, will enable many a brain worker to arise refreshed who might have spent an hour or two in a vain and mentally confused struggle against the "drowsy god." A cup of tea or coffee about an hour after a light luncheon will facilitate and expedite the last stages of gastric digestion and so assist in the rapid re-establishment of mental vigor and clearness of mind.

There are some persons who instead of resting after luncheon or early dinner take some form of exercise, such as walking or cycling. If the meal has been at all substantial muscular exercise must tend to retard and weaken digestion by withdrawing a certain modicum of nerve energy to the lower limbs and the centers which govern their movements and diminishing the circulation in the alimentary canal by increasing it in the legs and arms. Unless their digestive powers are very keen people who take active exercise after food find that the process of digestion is thereby only prolonged.

On many grounds rest after food is more in accordance with physiological requirements than exercise, and the afternoon nap, so scoffed at by the heedless, is a measure to be not only defended but recommended. It is a practice beneficial not only to digestion, but to many of the other functions of the body. Rest is the one thing needful in this restless age, and it is never so necessary as in the small hours of the afternoon.

Among the many generally unsuspected benefits conferred on the post meridian sleeper rest of the heart and systemic circulation must be placed in the front rank. Now, the more rest, within the limits of health, the heart is able to obtain the more efficiently and the longer will it continue to carry on its work, for the heart is, with most people, a much overworked organ, and any indulgence given it will be repaid many times over.

Another very important organ which gains a much needed rest during the afternoon nap is the eye. There is no reason why people should be constantly allowing waste the powers of the organs of vision, the optic nerve and the visual centers of the brain itself by habitual gazing at whatever trivial objects chance to present themselves within the field of vision. Even the memorial of "things seen" entails an expenditure of nerve energy, and an adjustment of accommodation, wear and tear of the exceedingly fine and delicate ocular mechanism and a corresponding exhaustion of the nerve cells constituting the visual centers of the brain, all of which must tend ultimately to curtail the period during which the visual sense should be at its best.—London Chronicle.

Carpenter's Strokes to Drive a Nail.

How many hammer strokes does a carpenter use in driving a nail?

Perhaps not one carpenter in a thousand or one layman in ten times that number can tell or ever think of it. The truth of the matter is this: The carpenter takes seven strokes in driving a nail into ordinary wood and twelve regular strokes and two finishing taps in driving nails into hard wood.

These figures are furnished by a man who works at night and sleeps—or tries to sleep—by day and whose bedroom window opens out upon a flat building in course of erection. He figured the average number of hammer strokes for nine mornings and, having learned them, moved to a hotel until the new building is completed.

He discovered that the carpenter drives an average of three nails a minute in soft wood and a fraction under three in hard wood. At this rate he would drive 1,440 nails a day in soft wood if he keeps up the gait steadily and 1,282 in hard wood. He would give 10,080 hammer strokes in soft wood and 20,160 in hard wood.—Chicago Tribune.

Popular Names Abroad.

Numerous as are the members of the Smith family, they do not occupy as prominent a place in European directories as they do in those of England or at home, though they take up much room in the Berlin directory, 5,000 Schmidts being registered. They have to give room, however, to the Schultzes and Mullers. In Brussels the Jansen family is the most numerously represented, while the greater space in the Paris directory is given over to the Martinets.

Morelli and Vitelli are the names most numerous in Naples, and here the Smiths sink into significance; but, like the word "hello," the name of Smith is heard around the world and is represented in practically every directory published, more than may be said of any other surname, whatever its nationality.

England's Round Tree.

The heart of England is a sturdy member that throbs responsive to every call of duty. That, indeed, is not common to England, but is a heritage of every land where the love of country is deep in the breast of man. But the real heart of England—its exact geographical center—is altogether another proposition. So far from being occupied by patriotic sentiment, a tree exactly fills the space. It is called Round Tree and is both a picturesque and distinguished growth. Cold stone might mark the spot, but this living monument which greens as the snow melts is much more fitting. This ancient oak typifies the national strength, and the associations attached to it thickly as leaves in midsummer make it a thing of affection and veneration.

False Dice.

The following passage explains the various methods of cheating at dice in the Elizabethan era so well that I transcribe it in full for the benefit of commentators on old plays, etc., says a correspondent of London Notes and Queries. "What false dise use they? as dise stopped up with quicksilver and beares, dise of vauntage, flattes, gourdes to chop and chaunge whan they lyste, to lette the trew dise fall under the table, and so take up the false, and if they be true dise, what shyfte will they make to set ye one of them with slyding, with cogging, with foysting, with coytinge, as they call it."—Ascham's "Toxophilus," 1545.

Didn't Have to Pay Rent.

This is said to be how William Waldorf Astor gave the order for the fine offices built for the Pall Mall Gazette: Mr. Astor was signing checks one morning and was informed that one of them was for office rent. He laid down his pen and remarked: "Well, I must pay taxes and other expenses, but I need not pay rent. If it pays another man to erect a building and rent it to me, then it will pay me. Now," turning to his right hand man, "make arrangements for new offices. I don't want to hear anything more about it for a year." And so the offices were built.

Dying of Famine

Is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at all drug stores. Price 50c and $1 a bottle. Trial bottle free.
